URGENT MATTERS

5.1 Emergency Reception Centre Update (addition to agenda).

Mr. John Kokotilo, Manager of Protective Services (Fire & Enforcement), provided the following update on the Emergency Reception Centre:

- Supplies for evacuees have been moved from the Bold Center to the Jubilee Hall and Archery Lanes;
- Meals for evacuees have been moved from the Bold Center Devon Room to the McArthur Room at McArthur Place;
- All supplies from Beaver Lake, Buffalo Lake, etc., have been consolidated; all supplies are now in the salt shed at County Centre;
- Donations are still coming in by the truck load;
- Currently evacuees are able to get supplies from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., with one staff person on at all times to oversee the need for supplies;
- The County is still serving between 300 – 500 meals daily;
- There is no certainty when evacuees are to return home;
- All volunteer and employee hours are being documented.

Mayor Moghrabi thanked and commended Mr. Kokotilo, staff, and volunteers for all their hard work and dedication.

PUBLIC INPUT SESSION/DELEGATIONS/PUBLIC HEARINGS

6.1 Delegation – Lac La Biche Regional Health Foundation;

Council and Administration introduced themselves to the delegation. Mr. Zicki Eludin, Mr. Kal Polturak, and Mr. Brydon Ward, representatives of the Lac La Biche Regional Health Foundation, introduced themselves to all those present.

Mr. Eludin started the presentation by thanking Council for their support of the mobile cardiac telemetry monitor, the staff provided as administrative support, and for organizing the golf tournament with Portage College. The following information was shared:

- History of the Foundation;
- The Lac La Biche Regional Health Foundation was formally approved by the Minister of Health on September 10, 2015;
- The Foundation is working toward obtaining full charitable status which will allow the Foundation to issue income tax receipts for donations. With a charitable status, it will be easier to fundraise;
- The Foundation obtained a mailbox number and are working toward getting a phone number;
- The Foundation's vision is to have a hospital that is fully equipped with diagnostic equipment to enhance direct patient care;

Councillor Olson entered Council Chambers at 10:21 a.m.

- The Foundation's goals include: enhanced medical care at the William J. Cadzow Health Centre; expansion of new services and new equipment; and the ability to provide scholarships to post-secondary students taking health related programs;
- The Foundation's upcoming events include: Golf Fore Health Tournament; Festival of Trees Banquet; and a Valentine's Gala;
- Marketing plan – website launch, Facebook and Twitter accounts;
- Groups, companies and individuals that are willing to assist with fundraising;
- List of projects – purchase of a CT scanner and other diagnostic equipment that will assist in encouraging professionals to work and live in the community;
- The Ladies' Auxiliary has been assisting with fundraising efforts.

Discussion ensued regarding lobbying efforts with the Provincial Government.

Mayor Moghrabi thanked the delegation for their presentation.
